

INTERVENANTS

Beth Dwyer was appointed Superintendent of Insurance on Jan. 11, 2016, and named Director of Business Regulation in May 2023. Prior to this appointment, she had been employed by the Rhode Island Department of Business Regulation for 15 years, first as general counsel to the Insurance Division and later as associate director. Prior to government service, Director Dwyer was engaged in private law practice in California and Rhode Island specializing in litigation and insurance regulation.

Director Dwyer is a member of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) and is the current President-Elect of the organization. She has served as chair of the NAIC Property & Casualty (C), Financial Condition (E) and Financial Regulation Standards and Accreditation (F) Committees as well as numerous task forces and working groups. She has served on the Board of Directors of National Insurance Producer Registry (NIPR) and as an Officer of the Interstate Insurance Product Regulation Commissioner (IIPRC). She is the NAIC representative to the Financial Stability Oversight Counsel (FSOC). She is also a member of the Executive Committee of the International Association of Insurance Supervisors (IAIS) as well as a member of a number of IAIS Task Forces. She is a member of the Rhode Island Artificial Intelligence Task Force (AITF) Government Fact Finding Team (FFT).

Director Dwyer is a past president of the Rhode Island Women's Bar Association and was awarded the 2010 Rhode Island Attorney General's Justice Award for Consumer Protection. She was also the recipient of the 2023 Raymond G. Farmer Award for Exceptional Leadership from the NAIC. She holds the designations of Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) from The Institutes, Chartered Life Underwriter (CLU) from The American College, and Senior Professional in Insurance Regulation (SPIR) from the NAIC. She was admitted to practice law in California, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, the Federal District Courts of California, Rhode Island and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. She earned a JD from Pepperdine University in 1985 and a BA in Political Science and Public Administration from Providence College in 1982.
