Mr. Hamish
DOWEN

Managing Director – Head of EMEA
Gallagher Re

Hamish has more than twenty years of experience in the European reinsurance market, the last 12 of which were with Willis Re / Gallagher Re, providing advice to a wide variety of insurers and reinsurers operating across that region, as well as successfully placing reinsurance programmes in a wide range of different classes of business.

He has been instrumental in designing new programmes, as well as helping insurers to implement new reinsurance strategies to support the aims and needs of their business.

Hamish is based in London but travels extensively throughout the EMEA region to meet with local markets and understand their individual needs and challenges.
