Mr. Florian
WIMBER

Head of European & International Affairs
German Insurance Association (GDV)

Florian Wimber is Head of European & International Affairs at the German Insurance Association (GDV). Based in Brussels, he leads GDV's advocacy and public affairs work at EU and international level, engaging with policymakers and key stakeholders on insurance regulation and related policy issues.

He returned to GDV in 2025 after nearly seven years at Insurance Ireland, where he served as Director of Advocacy, Communications and Public Affairs and was a member of the Senior Leadership Team. Earlier, he advised the Kingdom of Cambodia's Ministry of Economy and Finance on insurance, pensions and social protection. From 2010 to 2016, he held several roles at GDV, including Deputy Head of European Affairs and Policy Adviser in Risk Management and European Affairs.

He is German and holds a master's degree in economics from the University of Cologne and Trinity College Dublin.
